Michael Pratt

Conductor of the Princeton University Orchestra and Opera Theater since 1977, Michael Pratt also holds positions as Artistic Director of the June Opera Festival (which he founded with Peter Westergaard) and Music Director of the Delaware Valley Philharmonic. Previous to the latter appointment, he held the position of Associate Conductor of the New Jersey Symphony for five years. In his years at Princeton he has conducted works ranging in scale from Stravinsky's A Soldier's Tale to Mahler's "Resurrection" Symphony. He has also conducted numerous premieres at Princeton, including the U.S. premiere of Beethoven's Leonore, the original version of Fidelio, and new works by Princeton composers. In January of 1990 he took the University Orchestra on a highly successful tour of the East Coast, with concerts in Washington and Baltimore.

Pratt has performed with some of the leading ensembles in the United States, including the orchestras of Atlanta, Indianapolis, Rochester, the Boston Symphony Chamber Players, Opera Delaware, and the Griffin Ensemble. He has studied with Gustav Meier, Gunther Schuller and Otto Werner-Mueller.
