ABOUT RUTH OCHS

This year marks Ruth Ochs' tenth season as conductor of the Princeton University Sinfonia. Under her leadership Sinfonia has grown from a small chamber orchestra into a full symphony orchestra. Welcoming undergraduate and graduate student musicians, the Sinfonia performs music from the Baroque to the modern, and they have performed symphonies of Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Schumann, and Tchaikovsky.

Passionate about raising the bar among community, collegiate, and youth musicians, Ruth Ochs also shares her time with community and youth orchestras. Now in her seventh season as conductor and music director of the Westminster Community Orchestra, Ms. Ochs has led successful opera gala performances, many collaborations with partner ensembles from the Westminster Conservatory of Music, and a popular series of children's concerts. She is the founding conductor of a collaborative youth orchestra that joins middle school musicians of the Princeton Charter School and the Westminster Conservatory of Music. At the Westminster Conservatory, she is resident conductor for faculty ensembles. A supporter of new music, she led the premieres of several compositions by Laurie Altman, and conducted a recording of his Homage a Stravinsky for Albany Records.

Ruth Ochs holds degrees in music and orchestral conducting from Harvard University and the University of Texas at Austin, and she is completing her Ph.D. in musicology at Princeton University with a dissertation on twentieth-century Polish music. She spent many summers studying conducting at the Pierre Monteux School in Hancock, Maine with Maestro Michael Jinbo.
