TONIGHT'S ARTISTS

BRUCE ARNOLD, guitar

Guitarist Bruce Arnold has developed an extensive reputation as a composer, educator, and guitar virtuoso. He has created a unique signature sound that stems from his combination of jazz techniques and 20th Century compositional methods. He has played with such diverse musicians as Stuart Hamm, Peter Erskine, Joe Pass, Joe Lovano, Randy Brecker, Stanley Clarke, and the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Arnold is also deeply devoted to music education and has written more than 100 music instruction books. He is the Director of the New York University Summer Guitar Intensive and has taught at some of the most prestigious music schools in America, including the New England Conservatory of Music, Princeton University, Dartmouth College, Berklee College of Music, New School University, and City College of New York.

MICHAEL COCHRANE, piano

Michael Cochrane is a pianist, composer, arranger and instructor. He has performed and/or recorded with Sonny Fortune, Hannibal, Jack Walrath, Eddie Gomez, Valery Ponomarev, Paul Nash, John Clark, Clark Terry, Michael Brecker, Chico Freeman, Galen Abdur Razzaq, The Spirit Of Life Ensemble, Ted Curson, Oliver Lake, Bradford Hayes, and Nancy Monroe. Mr. Cochrane has performed in colleges, clubs, and concert halls including The Village Vanguard, Sweet Rhythms, Carnegie Hall, Weill Recital Hall, Alice Tully Hall, and Merkin Hall. He has toured all over the world, including Japan, Puerto Rico, the Philippines, and the Caribbean. In 1985 Mr. Cochrane received a Master of Arts Degree with honors from New York University. He has been a part-time instructor at NYU since the fall of 1985. Mr. Cochrane is also a part-time instructor at Princeton University, Rutgers University, and Bloomingdale School of Music. His teachers have included Jaki Byard, Eleanor Hancock and the late Madame Margaret Chalo. Mr. Cochrane has recorded ten CDs as a leader.
BRIAN GLASSMAN, double bass

Brian is an extremely versatile musician, at home in almost any genre of music but he is perhaps best known for his work in Jazz, and Jewish musical styles such as Klezmer. Some of the artists that Brian has performed, toured and recorded with include jazz greats such as Paquito D’Rivera, John and Bucky Pizzarelli, Lionel Hampton, Sahib Shabah, Kenny Burrell, Benny Golson, Harold Mabern, Randy Brecker, Ken Peplowski, Gene Bertoncini, and Billy Cobham. He has also collaborated with legendary interpreters of the Popular American Song Book such as Margaret Whiting, Michael Feinstein, Karen Akers, Liza Minnelli, and Anne Hampton Callaway. And, Klezmer/Yiddish and Jewish music stars such as Andy Statman, Frank London, Zalmon Mlotek, Alicia Svigals, Michael Alpert, Greg Wall, Adrienne Cooper, and Neshama Carlebach.

Brian has performed throughout the United States, Europe, the UK, Japan, South Africa, Brazil, Israel and Russia, in addition to a month-long six-country tour of South Pacific Asia for Jazz At Lincoln Center and the U.S. Dept. of State Bureau of Educational & Cultural Affairs as a musical ambassador representing the best of American musical styles with The Johnny Rodgers Band. He can be regularly heard playing his historic c.1820’s Prescott American double bass at NYC venues such as Birdland, Jazz at Lincoln Center’s Rose Theater, The Allen Room, Merkin Concert Hall, Damrosch Bandshell, Symphony Space, The Oak Room at the Algonquin, The Blue Note, and Iridium.
VINCE ECTOR, drums

Vince Ector hails from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and attended both the University of Pennsylvania and William Paterson University. As a performer, he has worked with such jazz luminaries as National Endowment for the Arts Jazz Masters: Freddie Hubbard, Randy Weston, James Moody, Slide Hampton and Jimmy Heath as well as Gloria Lynne, Charles Earland, Bobby Watson, Lou Donaldson, Grover Washington Jr., Dr. Lonnie Smith, Ron Carter, Claudio Roditi, John Lee, Ralph Peterson Jr., Melvin Sparks, and Shirley Scott. In addition, he performs regularly with the Grammy Award winning Charles Mingus Orchestra & Big Band, Orrin Evans Quartet and Captain Black Big Band, Randy Weston Octet, The Dizzy Gillespie Alumni All Stars & Big Band, Bobby Watson & Horizon, as well as with his own groups in such venues as Smoke, The Iridium, Dizzy's Club Coca-Cola, and The Jazz Standard.

Vincent's work as a drummer, percussionist, composer, and bandleader is spotlighted on three CD projects he produced, which include Organatomy featuring Brazilian trumpeter/flugelhornist Claudio Roditi; Renewal of the Spirit with alto saxophonist Bobby Watson; and Rhythm Master with the legendary Eddie Henderson on trumpet. In addition to teaching at Princeton University, Vince has been featured as a clinician at the University of the Arts in Philadelphia, Lincoln University, and the Belgrade, Serbia Jazz Festival. He is a sought after Artist-in-Residence for The Center for Arts Education in NYC and Arts Horizons Inc. of Englewood, New Jersey, and is the President and Executive Director of Arts For Kids Inc., a non-profit arts-in-education company providing workshops performances and professional development for schools in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.
